GOV. EARL WARREN DEWEY'S RUNNING MATE

Lack Of Agreement Halted Hopes Of "Anti-Dewey" Movement

Failure To Pick One Man To Push Beat Opponents

BY TED CREAGH
PHILADELPHIA, June 25—The Tom Dewey blitz left the hopes of half-a-dozen would-be Presidents in tatters today and gave his beaten rivals two time-worn mottos to paste in their trampled hats: "One head is better than three or four, if there's only one crown to put on it, and—"

It is more fun to ride on a bandwagon than to get run over by a steamroller.

The Monday morning quarterbacks—the key men of the Republican national convention—sized it up this way in telling the inside story of the week's high-pressure events: Dewey's rivals couldn't all win. If they had got together on one man to oppose Dewey, they probably could have stopped the New York governor just short of the victory line.

But they didn't. Senator Robert A. Taft wouldn't drop out. Neither would Harold E. Stassen or Gov. Earl Warren. They formed a stop-Dewey alliance but it had no focus—nothing but an "anti" force behind it. All it did was commit each of them to stay in the race until something turned up.

Had A Focus
And Dewey's campaign had a focus—Dewey.

The bandwagon started to roll last Tuesday when Senator Ed Martin bowed out as Pennsylvania's favorite son and carried 41 Keystone state votes into the Dewey camp.

That convinced a lot of people that the other candidates were licked unless they pooled their strength behind just one of their number. But they didn't do that—ever. They kept hoping—until last night.

Warren put it very frankly: "We expected that Connecticut would make the first break in our direction but it didn't happen that way."

"We thought that Senator Vandenberg would make a better showing than he did and that the (Dewey) opposition would start to crack if we could get half of Michigan's vote and half of Connecticut's."

Well, Michigan's "dark horse" Vandenberg made hardly any showing at all. An awful lot of people took him at his word that he didn't want to be President.

Michigan itself gave the senator up for lost. When Dewey piled up a whopping 434 votes on the first ballot, some of the Michiganans began to tub at the Vandenberg traces. After all, Tom was a Michigan boy. . . . He was going to win anyway.

When Dewey zoomed up to 515 votes on the second ballot—a fast 33 short of the nomination—Michigan got ready to climb aboard. Hurriedly the boys debated whether er to change their second ballot and throw Dewey the 41 votes that would have put him over.

They were still arguing when the afternoon sessions adjourned. "We missed the boat," said Detroit Police Commissioner Harry J. Toole.

But Connecticut went charging up to the pier in time and the people who knew best say it was the

Boyle's Sidelights Dewey Earns "That Look" From Wife In Hour Of Joy

BY HAL BOYLE
PHILADELPHIA, June 25—Convention sidelights:

There is a look that doesn't come every day into a woman's eyes. It came at 9:15 last night into the eyes of one woman.

She is a handsome dark-haired woman and was wearing a pearl black suit—the kind men like because it isn't foolish—a neat black suit, and a rope of pearls.

She stood on a platform in Convention hall beside a man who had just won the Republican presidential nomination. He was also the first Republican since the party's founding in 1856 who had gained a second nomination after losing to a Democrat.

The woman was Mrs. Thomas E. Dewey, who once told an interviewer that the only career she desired was to be "my husband's wife."

And she was living up to her career. As Governor Dewey threw up a confident hand to the cheering crowd, she turned to him the look that every husband who loves his wife sometimes hopes to see in her eyes. Eyes said in shiny eloquence:

"Look at my man. Isn't he something? My Tom. They're cheering you again."

And she knew that every woman in the vast crowd of 14,000 people there knew the pride she felt, for all women see these things in other women's eyes. And so do a lot of men, too.

I don't pity Tom Dewey his title and his worrisome campaign ahead. But I do pity him that look of proud loyalty that Frances Hutt Dewey gave him.

The average man gets it from his wife only on their night out together when he tells a snooty waiter to take her steak back and cook it the way she said. Her hero! Or maybe when he reaches down their small child's sleeping throat and pulls out the chicken bone choking her.

The funny thing about getting that which look of "You're the only man in the world for me" is that you don't have to be a winner to get it.

You are as likely to get it from the old girl when the world takes you a lower as when you are the people's crowned savior of this or that.

Senator Arthur Vandenberg may have wondered if the last woman whether he shouldn't have made a real grab for the nomination that would have crowned his long career of public service. There were many, many people who wanted him to.

But I think Mrs. Vandenberg was completely right when she said she hoped her husband wouldn't get it. Her man, after all, had given

Wet Roads Blamed For Two Collisions

Three persons were injured and four cars damaged in a pair of accidents Thursday afternoon caused by wet, slippery roads, the state highway patrol reported.

Cars driven by Charles Johnson, 32, of Lisbon and Robert Alken, 27, of Hopedale, Wash., skidded on a curve on Route 30, five miles west of Lisbon at 5:15 p. m. Thursday, and collided.

Alken suffered a lacerated knee, while his wife, Eva, 25, sustained a lacerated head. They were treated by a doctor in Lisbon. Both cars were damaged.

TRUMAN EXPRESSES OPINION ON DEWEY GOP NOMINATION

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 25—Senator James E. Murray (D-Mont.) today quoted President Truman as saying the Republican national convention has shown that "conservative interests" are in control of that party.

Officially Mr. Truman has maintained silence about the GOP convention and the selection of New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey as Republican presidential nominee.

Murray was asked about Mr. Truman's reaction to the GOP meeting after he had talked with the president at the White House.

Murray told reporters: "He (Mr. Truman) seemed to think the convention illustrates how the conservative interests of the country are in control of the convention and dominating its actions."

"He seemed to regard the platform as a reiteration of promises the Republicans have failed to carry out in the past."

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross said Mr. Truman had no comment officially on Dewey's nomination.

Ross added Mr. Truman saw and heard the nomination over television in his White House study.

COAL AGREEMENT REACHED TODAY

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 25—John L. Lewis and most of the soft coal operators today signed a new coal contract providing a $1-a-day wage increase and twice as much money for the miners' welfare-pension fund.

An official of the steel industry-owned coal mines had announced earlier he would not sign the agreement.

A joint announcement by Lewis and the operators who signed said the new contract—except for the increased wages and pension fund—kept all other terms and conditions of the previous wage agreement.

Defies Taft Law
This includes an outright continuation of a union shop provision, despite a Taft-Hartley Labor act ban against the union shop unless it is authorized by the National Labor Relations board.

The union shop clause caused Harry M. Moses to balk at signing for the steel industry-owned "captive" coal mines.

The new contract is effective July 1 and will replace one expiring June 30.

The miners, however, begin their annual 10-day vacation tomorrow and will not return to work until July 6.

I'm not in accord with the contract and I'm not signing it," Moses told newsmen.

He said he would issue a statement later. He indicated he felt continuation of the union shop clause in the contract is a violation of the labor law.

The remaining coal operators and Lewis, in their joint statement, said:

BEVIN TELLS HOUSE BERLIN IS "DELICATE"

Russians Cut Off Food Supply. Electricity In New Ouster Move

(By Associated Press)
Russia cut off food today from her zone to the U. S., British and French areas of Berlin in an accelerated effort to force the Allies out. The Russians had stopped the flow from Western Germany by asserting the lone railroad needed repairs.

They again disrupted electric service in Western Berlin.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin told the house of commons the situation in Berlin is delicate.

He said the 2,000,000 persons in the western zones of Berlin were displaying great calmness.

He stood by a previous assertion that the British will remain, "whatever provocation there may be."

The U. S. military governor, Gen. Lucius D. Clay, has said nothing short of war can force the Americans out.

Call For One State
Russia and her seven Communist states of Eastern Europe called in their Warsaw conference for what they termed a "provisional democratic, peace-loving all-German government." Stripped of verbiage, that meant a Communist Germany under Russia's thumb.

The Warsaw conference agreed upon one more try for German unity. The fact remained that Russia has blocked every previous attempt of the western powers to attain that unity and a German peace treaty.

The western powers have agreed to establish a state in Western Germany.

The Warsaw meeting proposed a four-power agreement on German demilitarization, big four control of the Ruhr's heavy industry, a German peace treaty and withdrawal of occupation troops, and the "all-German" government.

It accused the western powers again of breaking the Potsdam agreement by issuing a new currency and by the plan to establish a west German regime. Russia also has proclaimed a new currency.

Israel charged Egypt has broken the United Nations truce, entering the third of its four weeks run today, by bombing two Jewish settlements and halting a motor convoy in the Israeli Negev.

Count Folke Bernadotte, the U. N. mediator, himself complained that an Egyptian fighter plane shot 13 holes into a U. N. plane. The pilot escaped injury.

Chosen Quickly In Morning Session After Dewey Choice

(By Associated Press)
CONVENTION HALL, Philadelphia, June 25—Gov. Earl Warren of California today accepted the Republican vice-presidential nomination before cheering delegates of the national convention.

He came to the convention hall after being nominated by acclamation to run with Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York on the GOP presidential ticket.

Warren got the nod from Dewey after a GOP "brains board" canvassed the whole field of possibilities.

Mrs. Warren and the governor's three daughters, Virginia, 19, Dorothy, 17, and Nina, 14, accompanied him to the platform.

The smiling family group posed for five minutes for photographers: Mrs. Warren wore a blue suit and a wide-brimmed white hat.

Chairman Joseph Martin introduced Warren who, he said, will be vice-president after next November.

Warren took the speaker's stand and drew a laugh at the outset by saying:

"For the first time in my life I know what it feels like to get hit by a streetcar."

"Yesterday, I received something of a jolt. I had no idea I am sure that there was any shock awaiting me as today. And before you change your mind I want to say—I accept."

"Now the reason that I am so quick to say that is that I have not yet recovered by breath, much less my thoughts."

"If I let it go any longer, I'm afraid I'll forget to say even that."

Thanks Party
"I am more grateful to you than you know for the great honor that you have given me."

"And then I pledge to you that if the people place their confidence in us, as I believe they will, that during the next four years, I will give every bit of loyalty in my makeup."

The conferences which led to the 28-year-old Californian's selection began last night, ran through the dawn hours, and were completed in a three-hour session after Dewey took a cat-nap.

One of those who backed a losing contender for the No. 2 GOP spot told something of what went on behind the closed doors of Dewey's hotel suite.

"It was like arguing a case before the supreme court," he said.

Dewey sat there like a supreme court judge, he explained, to hear the "case" for every vice presidential hopeful. He was flanked by a "board" including Senator Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, Senator Raymond Baldwin of Connecticut, Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll of New Jersey, Herbert Brownell, Jr., a Dewey manager, G. Mason Dole, representative Republican national committeeman and J. Russell Sprague, New York national committeeman.

Reach Decision
Finally these men reached a decision. Sprague went out and passed the word to waiting newsmen.

Dewey and his "board" had tapped Warren Sprague said it was "Practically unanimous."

Stassen's backers in the GOP convention took it hardest. The hard-campaigning Minnesotan has a do-or-die following among younger Republicans. They don't take defeat easily.

Some wanted to put his name before the convention anyhow but Stassen wouldn't hear of that and, when the convention ratified the Dewey-and-board decision, said:

"I will give my support to Governor Warren but as I announced last night I would suggest Governor Dewey and only Republican candidates."

Louis H. Brush

The employees of this newspaper and the other personnel of Brush-Moore Newspapers, Inc., share a strong sense of loss with the host of friends saddened by the death of Louis H. Brush Thursday morning in Philadelphia.

Mr. Brush made his career in newspaper work and remained a newspaper man all his life. Wherever he was, whatever he was doing, he never lost the instinct of inquiry which is the badge of the profession. He possessed a genuine fondness for people. He loved them as a humanitarian loves them, because he believed in their goodness. He had implicit faith in his fellowmen and drew to himself countless friends who basked in the warmth of his understanding companionship.

It was natural that politics became an outlet for his surpassing skill in the art of human relations. He was one of the best known figures in a generation of Ohioans whose interest in political matters made the state uniquely influential. In this avocation, as in newspaper work, his interest never diminished.

If a man who has earned it sometimes has the privilege of being where he would most wish to be when death comes, it could be imagined that Mr. Brush might have chosen the scene of a national convention among old friends, working for the presidential hopes of another Ohioan—Robert A. Taft, son of one of the presidents from Ohio he helped to elect a generation ago.

We who have known him as an employer, who have admired his loyalty to the ideals of our profession and have been the beneficiaries of his enterprise in the free society, he cherished mourn his passing.

We shall think of him in the days and years ahead. We shall aspire to be as faithful to our abilities as he was to his.

Our sympathy is given to Mrs. Brush and his grandson, to his associates in business and philanthropy, to his many close friends — to all who remember him fondly at this time of bereavement.

Bigger Than The Atom

A routine announcement by Charles F. Kettering, director of research for General Motors, may become as memorable as some of the early announcements about atomic fission. The problem of converting solar energy into fuel, Mr. Kettering says, has been blocked out for laboratory research.

He was referring to the systematic attempt to find out how solar energy is transmitted to vegetable matter and released as heat later, after the vegetable matter has been converted by natural processes into coal and oil. If science could learn how to use a short-cut, the discovery would be equal in importance to nuclear fission.

It might be more important, because solar energy is being transformed into chlorophyll continuously, while the release of atomic energy is confined to relatively rare fissionable materials for the present — and for the foreseeable future.

Solar energy itself is the result of nuclear fission occurring in the elements of the sun — a vast laboratory safely distant from the earth. Men's search for a new source of energy on the earth can be conducted more safely in the direction of vegetation than in the direction of reproducing the phenomenon of the sun under laboratory conditions.

Scope of the N. L. R. B.

There's a difference of opinion within the NLRB over application of the Taft-Hartley act to hotels, restaurants and small businesses involved only indirectly or to a limited degree in interstate commerce.

The general counsel, Robert Denham, believes the act covers such enterprises. "A secondary boycott," he says, "hurts a small business just as much as a large one. It has just as much right to protection. This is the only tribunal that can do anything for it. I don't know how it can be denied its day in court."

The board chairman, Paul M. Herzog, would prefer not to bring the board into cases involving what he calls borderline trades and industries. But rather than set a fixed policy it will consider each case individually. This appears to be a logical decision, for the board has more than enough work to do exercising jurisdiction over industries involved in large-scale interstate activities.

From Rags To What?

There was a time when cool minets would call on the sympathy of the public for any effort to raise their standards of living and decrease the hazards of high occupation. The public is still interested in the welfare of coal miners.

But they are no longer underprivileged. In terms of wage income, they now are the aristocracy of labor. Their occupation is still hazardous and sometimes without any need for it to be so as the Centralia disaster indicated. But it may be questioned whether coal mining is relatively more hazardous than many other occupations that do not have the benefits of repeated strikes in call attention to them.

The United Mine Workers is a strong union, perhaps the strongest in the United States. It is led by a militant, the strongest union executive in the country, John L. Lewis. He has earned his strength by setting records. The question is whether there is such a thing as strong union leadership in setting records for hazardous public employment.

Mr. Lewis is a man of single purpose. He has worked tirelessly with his union, even considering the idea of public welfare. Once more he has played his cards to win. He has shown the public that there is a man who can lead a union and a people who can follow him. He has shown the public that there is a man who can lead a union and a people who can follow him. He has shown the public that there is a man who can lead a union and a people who can follow him.

Berlin Incidents

It is being repeated too often for comfort that the western powers do not know what they would do if Russia blundered into an incident of open warfare in the Berlin area.

The western powers obviously do not know what they would do. They would have no choice. They would have to go to the defense of their nationals in a beleaguered city.

To do this they would have to be equipped with a plan of joint military action, a grand plan of strategy and a mutual understanding of their obligations and purposes. They would have to strike at the aggressor with their maximum power, or risk the probability that Russia might surge through western Germany into France and confront the world with a fait accompli — the conquest of Europe.

They would need to be assured in advance of manpower, armament and all the materials of war, because if Russia insists on precipitating Berlin incidents and a mutual understanding of their obligations and purposes. They would have to strike at the aggressor with their maximum power, or risk the probability that Russia might surge through western Germany into France and confront the world with a fait accompli — the conquest of Europe.

If the western powers actually don't know what they would do if Russia demanded a showdown in the Berlin area the impeachment and court-martial of some very high officials are in order. If they do know, they should say so—a dozen times a day until the Kremlin gets the idea.

The Stars Say
For Saturday, June 26

A "Red Letter Day" is the subject, based upon planetary aspects that must be deemed not only breathtaking and sensational but soul-stirring as well, since all departments of human living are in line for thrilling and deep-seated drama. A radical and quite unforeseen combination of openings changes unique experiences with probably a deep and sudden coming up of all that has gone before in forecast. Fresh fields of endeavor, new contacts, romantic ventures and keen excitement are in the air.

Those whose birthday is or are about to "expect the unexpected" such celebration may mean and do an unforgettable adventure that will set the foundations of the life in all its aspects, significant it might be as if the whole destiny of the world is drawn and with lines of deep feeling meaning new reaches of endeavor.

A child born on this day is stored of a strong, unshakable and undisturbable nature, though he may change environment and with adversity, though he may and possibly change.

Guarding Your Health

A Gland That Works 'Magic'

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

The trust magic in the world is that worked every day for most of us by the body's glands of internal secretion, but few of us realize its wonder because we have no knowledge of what happens when one or the other of these secretions is lacking.

Take the thyroid gland, for instance. Doctors sometimes have occasion to see children who are born with some deficiency of this gland. The picture is about as far from that of a normal child as could be imagined. Dwarfed and stunted in stature, slow-moving and sluggish, these children also lack all of childhood's normal mental alertness and curiosity.

Called Cretinism

This condition is known as cretinism. Just why it occurs is not definitely known. Some children are born without a thyroid gland. In others, the gland is present and may be even greatly enlarged, but for some reason it manufactures little or none of its secretions. Lack of iodine or some interference with its absorption may be at the root of the trouble in the latter case.

In any event if the trouble is discovered early and small doses of thyroid extract started at once, remarkable changes occur within a few weeks. Physical and mental sluggishness disappear, the bones begin to strengthen, abnormal fatty deposits shrink, and the child is entirely transformed.

First Signs Noted

The first signs of cretinism in a baby are failure to nurse well, to cry normally, and a tendency to sleep almost constantly. The tongue may become enlarged and some difficulty in swallowing develops early in most cases. In many cases, these signs may be so slight as to make the diagnosis difficult until, with time, the retarded growth of the bones—one of the most unmistakable evidences of cretinism—becomes apparent.

If cretinism is suspected, small doses of thyroid extract should be started at once. As I said earlier, if the trouble is due to cretinism, remarkable changes will soon take place. Of course, the dose of thyroid extract must be carefully regulated by the physician, since an amount that would be excessive in some cases will not overcome the deficiency in others.

In Older Child

Signs of cretinism in the older child are more marked. Failure to grow properly, swelling of the tongue and failure to walk and to talk at the usual ages are all significant. Dryness of the skin and puffiness of the eyes are often present. A child deficient in thyroid

Cleveland's Last Strike Ends After 16-Day Period

CLEVELAND, June 24—The sixth city was strike-free today for the first time in several months.

Cleveland's only work stoppage ended last night when 400 CIO United Auto Workers unionists voted to end a 16-day walkout by ratifying a new two-year agreement with the Park Drop Forge Co. The workers struck at the Forge plant June 7 to support demands for 30 cent hourly pay hikes.

The new agreement provides for a flat 13-cent hourly wage increase for production workers and additional boosts of 3-12 to 14 cents an hour for employees in 17 other work classifications to eliminate wage inequalities, union officials said. The raises were retroactive to June 1.

Certain tribesmen of India eat buffalo only once a year, when a bull calf is sacrificed and eaten in a forest by the male adults.

secretion is usually mentally sluggish and likely to be overweight in comparison with his height.

It is important the cretinism be diagnosed early because the sooner treatment with thyroid extract is started, the better the results. If individuals with this condition are not treated early, they do not obtain their normal height, and disturbances of mental development also occur.

Babies should be examined at regular intervals by the physician because, through such examination, abnormal conditions such as cretinism may be discovered while there is still time to correct them.

FAILURE

Nutmeg state that started the final stampede just as it turned the tide for Wendell Willkie eight years ago.

Baldwin Started End
Those on the inside knew what was going to happen when Connecticut's gray, scrappy Senator Raymond E. Baldwin, arms swinging, hurried up to the chairman's rostrum after the second ballot.

Baldwin, with 19 delegates, was all set to step out as their favorite son and go for Dewey. He had been playing the stop-Dewey game up to now. But, as Baldwin said, he could count and so could his delegates. They knew Dewey was in. They figured to be "king-makers" for the second time.

Baldwin bent the ear of Chairman Joe Martin. No—it was too late for Connecticut to change its second ballot preference, but—

Anybody who had been in doubt knew now that the brakes were off and the bandwagon had jet-propulsion. New York cheerfully agreed to a recess. Let the anti-Dewey forces plot to their hearts' content. It was too late, Dewey was in. This was supposed to be top-secret, but:

After the day session broke up, Warren, Stassen and Vandenberg got together with Pennsylvania's Governor Duff. The governor had gone for Taft, without noticeable enthusiasm, after Ed Martin carried the bulk of the delegation to Dewey.

They talked and they talked. Some of the parleying was face to face. They talked and they talked. Some of it was done by telephone.

The upshot was: They decided to suffer it out, everybody holding what votes he could—giving Dewey nothing, making him win the hard way.

Then, five minutes before the night session of the convention was supposed to begin, the telephone rang.

It was Taft. He wanted to notify the others he was quitting.

Why? "Simple arithmetic," the senator was quoted as saying, Dewey had the votes.

And so the anti-Dewey coalition collapsed.

"We started too late," one power in the Pennsylvania delegation confided. "We should have got together on one candidate after the first ballot. Maybe we could have done something. . . . Maybe. . . ."

years trying to build an America and a one-world-for-all he believed in. She knew he would keep on doing that.

To her and to him, fighting for international unity is more important than to head one segment of a world—even our own big segment. I think she thought that the last best gift of life to her was his:

"Honey, you're my presidency—and I've had you for a long time. Now we can have more time together."

I think, being all my life fundamentally juvenile and in love with my own wife, Frances, that in this—our busy civilization—the thing that wives desire most is to be more with their husbands, and to share more in the worries they try to hold to themselves.

That is why I think that even witty Martha Taft must have gone to sleep last night with a feeling of relief.

She must have enjoyed the feminine consolation, alleviating to the hurt of her husband's defeat, that Senator Bob will be with her more often for the next few months—

Federal Court Action Bars Shipping Strikes

NEW YORK, June 25—New federal court orders barring threatened shipping strikes on three coasts and in the Great Lakes region were in effect today.

The orders were issued in New York, San Francisco and Cleveland yesterday—on the eve of the expiration of temporary strike bans obtained by the government.

In New York, the full force of a Taft-Hartley law clause was invoked by Federal Judge John W. Clancy who extended a 10-day restraining order to an 80-day anti-strike injunction.

The "cooling off" order affects 70-

000 shipping workers—members of the CIO Maritime union and two other CIO unions—on the east and gulf coasts.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW
PHILADELPHIA, June 25—The Republican party's 1948 platform, adopted by the convention here, is a pretty carefully worded document.

This platform, like the platforms offered the voters in other years by Republicans and Democrats, is supposed to do a couple of things:

1—Please as many voters as possible, which means promising to do things for them in various fields of American living.

2—Show where the Republican party stands in this year 1948 on American and world problems.

This doesn't mean the Republicans, if elected in November, will carry out every promise made.

In the presidential elections of 1944 the Democrats and Republican platforms promised many things neither party carried out.

Both of them, since 1944, have had an equal crack at running congress and making laws, the Democrats from 1944 to 1946, the Republicans since then.

A lot of Republicans worked on this year's platform, deciding not only what should be included or left out but on the phrasing of every sentence.

Because different groups and factions with the party had to be pleased or pacified, the platform is the result of compromise.

It's a careful, cautious statement, particularly so when it touches on social problems. For example, on education the platform says:

"We favor equality of educational opportunity for all and the promotion of education and educational facilities."

There is nothing there suggesting the Republican party intends to do anything specific about federal aid—money—for education.

At the same time, it doesn't say the Republicans won't do that.

A bill providing aid for schools died in the house this year after passing the senate. Opponents said they did not want to see the government mixed up in education.

This year President Truman was swamped in protests from his own southern Democrats for his program on civil rights. Southern negroes would have benefited most if that program had been carried through by congress.

One of the things he asked congress to do was wipe out the poll tax which has to be paid in eight states, seven of them in the south, before a person can vote there.

In their 1944 platform the Republicans took a more specific stand on the poll tax than they did in this new 1948 platform. In 1944 the platform said:

"The payment of any poll tax should not be a condition of voting in federal elections and we favor immediate submission of a constitutional amendment for its abolition."

One of the main arguments of southerners against any attempt by congress to wipe out the poll tax by law, was this:

It would be an interference by the federal government in a state's rights and that one of those rights is having a poll tax, if a state so wishes.

That's why the 1944 platform spoke of getting rid of the tax by an amendment to the Constitution. That would require approval by 36 states.

But white southerners, Republicans and Democrats alike, are sore over Mr. Truman's program. And this year, particularly, the Republicans have a chance to snatch away a lot of votes from the Democrats in the south.

This year's platform on the poll tax says simply: "We favor abolition of the poll tax as a requisite to voting."

Nothing is said about how it should be abolished. It merely puts the party on record as favoring getting rid of the tax. That's probably the least that could be said without costing the Republicans some southern votes.

Named Head of Travelers Organization at Meeting

COLUMBUS, June 25—Edwin A. Robbins, Chillicothe, today was elected supreme counselor of the United Commercial Travelers of America at the group's annual meeting here. He succeeds Allard F. Brophy, Montreal.

Other officers named were Walter Walker, Erie, Pa., supreme junior counselor; J. L. Collins, Texarkana, Ark., supreme conductor, and E. Keln Graff, Sioux Falls, S. D., supreme page.

The UCT voted to appropriate $15,000 to promote world peace through the United Nations.

James G. MacDonald will be the United States' first envoy to Israel, holding the rank of special representative of the U. S. MacDonald, 61, was a member of the Anglo-American Commission on Palestine in 1946 and is a former news analyst.

Methodists Voice Their Disapproval of U. M. T.

LAKE-SIDE, June 25—Delegates to the Northeast Ohio conference of the Methodist church believe that universal military service would "jeopardize the peace and the economic recovery of the world." Opposition to any form of peacetime military training was voiced yesterday by the more than 1,000 delegates in accepting a report of the Social Service commission of the conference, meeting in Lakeside.

The report stated that UMT "only accelerate the armament race in the world. Instead of preventing war, this race in the past led to war."

The conference also voted to study plans of ministerial supports, including a basic salary plan by the General conference, by which an annual conference may pool its salaries and all men receive a basic rate.

Report More Polio Cases

COLUMBUS, June 25—The State Health department today reported three new polio cases, one each in Washington, Marion and Union counties.

It said 26 cases had been reported since January. During the same period last year 17 cases occurred.

Truman Signs Expansion Bill Giving Navy Funds

WASHINGTON, June 25—President Truman today signed into law a bill carrying $3,749,099,250 to maintain and expand the Navy and Marine Corps during the year starting July 1.

The measure includes funds with which to start construction of a 65,000-ton aircraft carrier that will cost an estimated $127,000,000. It will be the largest of its kind afloat.

The Navy has asked $3,927,738,700 for the year.

LEETONIA PLANS NEW BLEACHERS

LEETONIA, June 25—The Community Booster club planning committee has presented a project to the club which will be given serious consideration.

Bleacher seats for 600 capacity are to be constructed. Prices quoted for commercially constructed bleachers were about $2,500. An offer has been made by the local Mellinger Lumber Co., Inc. to build similar bleachers not to exceed $840 for the steel and frame structure. Volunteer labor will be necessary in the erecting of the bleachers whether they are built locally or not.

Paul C. Otto will draw plans and submit specifications which will be sent to Columbus for state approval. Upon receiving approval Mellinger Lumber, Inc. will construct 11 bleacher units (55 seats each), the units to cost approximately $77 each.

The Booster club will collect the Reserve seat charge to pay for the bleachers. Arrangements are being made to have a band concert in July and one in August under the direction of W. Gwynne Jenkins, the proceeds to go to the Booster club.

Just as air propellers for boats and ice-yachts appeared soon after the airplane became a success, now a helicopter type of propulsion for boats that run on water and ice has made its appearance.

Junior Chamber Marks 10th Birthday, Installs Officers

Junior Chamber of Commerce officers for 1948-49 were installed at a 10th anniversary dinner meeting Thursday night in the Lape hotel, attended by Jaycee members and their wives. State President James Riggs of East Liverpool was also present.

The installation was conducted by E. M. Stephenson, president of the Chamber of Commerce. He also gave an entertaining and humorous talk. Incoming President Roy E. Yeager was presented a hand-tooled gavel, from the mantle of President McKinley's home.

New directors are Dale Wilson and James S. Jackson.

Yeager succeeds Darrel Rosenberry as head of the local organization. Rosenberry and William Wagener were presented key man awards by the Jaycees, in recognition of their service during the year.

The charter was awarded to the local chapter in 1938 and J. Don Guiley served the club as its first president. Succeeding Guiley was Dr. George F. Jones in 1939, Herbert Brown in 1940, Alfy Alfred Fitch in 1941, William Ross in 1942, William Bodendorfer in 1943, Rudy Linder in 1944, Moine Halterman in 1945 and Alroy Bloomberg in '46.

From a wartime complement of some 15 members, the Salem group has grown until it now has 55 active members, each serving in a different phase of civic work.

Wages Long One-Man War On Ohio Roadside Signs

CLEVELAND—The Ohio roadside council named Fred Charters Kelly its "official man of the year" for his quarter of a century of sign-busting.

The citation reads: "By his personal effort Mr. Kelly has kept one stretch of Ohio highway clear of disfigurement by roadside advertising."

That is the stretch of state route 303 between Kelly's home in Peninsula and Hudson.

Not even an election poster on a utility pole has seen the sun set on that five miles of highway since Kelly moved there after World War I.

At all times he carries a claw-hammer and a wrecking bar in his car.

No New Progress Made On Rail Strike Conference

WASHINGTON, June 25—Negotiations in the month-old railroad labor dispute, resumed only yesterday, were expected to collapse today unless some progress is made on new contract terms.

Presidential Labor Adviser John R. Steelman conferred separately with union and industry officials late yesterday, trying to find a basis for the new contract talks. At the end of the session, Steelman reported "no progress."

He scheduled new conferences for today and indicated to the parties that a second "no progress" report would signal the end of White House efforts to mediate a private agreement.

This could mean the government is ready to enter into direct bargaining with the engineers, firemen and switchmen if the rail industry fails to settle the dispute privately.

WASHINGTONVILLE

Mrs. Donald Indermill entertained the Skip-a-Week club at her home Monday evening.

Cards were the diversion of the evening. Those sharing honors were Mrs. Charles Hinchliffe, Mrs. Russell Smith of Leetonia, Mrs. Keith DeJane and Mrs. Lloyd Berg.

The girls honored Mrs. Charles Hinchliffe with a stork shower. Mrs. Russell Smith will entertain the club in two weeks.

Mosquitoes To Bother New Yorkers

NEW YORK—New Yorkers are in for plenty of scratching this summer.

The rainiest spring in 77 years has filled 15,000 acres of city swamp, 5,000 acres of which are perfect mosquito breeding grounds.

Milton Schneidman, supervisor of mosquito control for the New York Health department, reluctantly admitted he can't do much about it—except slap, scratch and complain.

KNOWLEDGE OF INSIDE OF ATOM UNCERTAIN, DR. OPPENHEIMER SAYS

By RENNIE TAYLOR
Associated Press Science Reporter
PASADENA, Calif., June 25—Scientists may have to back up on some of their theories before they learn the real nature of matter, says Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, famed atomic physicist.

Knowledge of the inside of the atom is so uncertain, he told the closing session of a cosmic ray symposium here yesterday, that it has led to some "nonsensical" conclusions.

"It is possible," he said, "that we not only don't know what the elementary particles of matter are, but that the whole way of thinking about their interaction which we have derived from theory may be quite wrong."

Dr. Oppenheimer during wartime headed the Los Alamos, N. M., laboratory which developed the atomic bomb. He said it would be "some time" before man-made atom smashers big enough to start telling the story of cosmic rays in research laboratories could be completed.

Meanwhile, he said, interpretation of cosmic ray research offers the main opportunity for determining the facts about the atomic nucleus which holds the secret of the nature of matter.

A huge atom smashing machine designed to duplicate some of the feats of the more powerful cosmic rays now is under construction for Dr. Ernest O. Lawrence at Berkeley, Calif. Another one is planned at the Atomic Energy commission's Brookhaven, Long Island, laboratory. But it will be five years or more before they are completed.

Lawrence's present cyclotron has duplicated some of the atomic transformations produced by the weakest cosmic ray. In doing this, it produced atom smashing bullets having energies of about 400,000,000 volts. But scientists in the meeting here have been talking about cosmic rays in the upper air producing atomic bullets having a wallop of one million million million volts. These super particles can do things far beyond the ability of the cyclotron.

FESLER SAYS HE WILL STICK ON JOB AT OHIO STATE

Not Interested In Post At Pittsburgh; Is Out To Cure OSU Troubles

PITTSBURGH, June 25—Wesley Fesler says he has a job to do at his alma mater—Ohio State—and is not interested in becoming Athletic Director at Pittsburgh.

The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette said yesterday that Fesler denied hearing from anyone at Pitt about the job but wasn't interested anyway.

The newspaper said Fesler had been mentioned frequently as a possible successor to Athletic Director Jimmy Hagen whose resignation is to become effective July 1.

"I have not heard from anyone at Pitt and I wouldn't be interested if I did," Fesler told the newspaper from his home at Columbus last night. "I've got a difficult task at Ohio and I've made up my mind to solve it."

Fesler said he had made up his mind to "lick this thing or get out of the coaching business. We will be improved this season but it's tough competition in the Western conference."

Fesler coached at Pitt in 1946, leaving for Ohio State last year.

Three Negro Stars Considered By Tribe

CLEVELAND, June 25—Three Negro players have received trials with the Cleveland Indians during the past week but have not yet been signed to contracts, Tribe President Bill Veeck reported today.

The trio included Pitcher Henry Miller, 27, from the Philadelphia Stars of the Negro National League; Hurler Pat Seantebury, 25, of the Negro National league champion New York Cubans, and Outfielder Fred Thomas, 23, from the Quebec, Canada, Farnham team of the Provincial league.

Veeck said the Indians' management had not yet reached a decision upon whether the players have major league talent.

Back and Forth

NEW YORK—Willard Crossley, who represented Atlanta while winning the United States Golf association amateur public links title last year, will represent New York in this year's test—which will be held in Atlanta, beginning July 19.

Are The Indians Ready To Be Scalped? Writer Wonders

BY RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Are the Cleveland Indians ready to be scalped? Manager Lou Boudreau's American league pace-setters have lost their first crucial series of the year and Bob Feller shows no signs of returning to the form that made him one of the greatest pitchers in baseball. These two factors have cast a cloud over a once rosy outlook.

"This is the year," shouted Cleveland fans when the Tribe opened the season by tearing off six straight triumphs. Their belief that the Indians would win their first pennant since 1920 grew stronger as the Tribe opened up a comfortable lead.

NERVOUS PAIR EXPECTED TO GO FOR SURE

After Two Postponements Both Fighters Appear Bothered

NEW YORK, June 25—The weather man predicted early today that the twice-postponed heavy-weight title fight between Joe Louis and Jersey Joe Walcott will go on tonight.

"There'll be a fight tonight," the U. S. weather bureau forecaster said on the basis of 6 a. m. data. Tonight will be fair, he said, adding that scattered showers predicted for late afternoon are not expected to continue late enough to force a third postponement.

The two veteran fighting men, their nerves strained by two delays, are scheduled to try again in Yankee stadium at 9:10 p. m. in their 15-round world championship bout.

The forecast for Saturday is fair and cool. The contest will be shifted to then if conditions don't permit it tonight.

The sponsoring Twentieth Century Sporting club has through Monday to get the business out of the way. The New York Yankees come home Tuesday to take over their ball park. Prize-fighting is against the law in New York on Sunday.

The combatants will not be forced to weigh-in again. At the ceremonies Wednesday, Louis weighed 213 1/2 and Walcott 194 1/2.

Both fighters were in their dressing rooms and thousands of fans were either inside the park or milling at the gates last night when the area was struck by the full force of a thunderstorm—pouring rain, sharp lightning and sound effects.

Grinding Of Clubs Keeps Pros Busy At Inverness

By FRITZ HOWELL
Ohio AP Sports Editor
TOLEDO, June 25—The boys who spent some time yesterday in the pro shop fixing up their clubs were the stars of the rain-swept opening round of the $11,850 Inverness 11th annual four-ball matches.

While most of the 16-player all star cast was on the practice tees and green, big Bob Hamilton of Evansville, Ind., the former PGA champion; Herman Kelsner, the former Masters king from Akron, O., and Ed Furgol, the Detroit sensation with the rigid left arm, were using files and emery wheels.

Hamilton and Kelsner were whittling some too—deep ridges off the faces of their irons after PGA Tournament Bureau Manager George Schneider had ruled the tools were just a mite off specifications.

Furgol was busy taking a bit off his clubs because he said they were too heavy.

In the opening round, however, the pro shop work paid off.

Kelsner and his partner, big Clayton Hafner of Charlotte, N. C., wheeled right out front with a five up victory over former Open Champion Lloyd Mangrum and curly-haired Dick Metz, clipping seven strokes off par with a 64.

Hamilton and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Little Rock popped up with eight birdies and a 63, best score of the day, in downing Johnny Palmer and "Skip" Alexander, both of North Carolina, two up.

And Furgol aided no end by Bobby Locke, the South African king, piled up the biggest mess of birdies—nine—in winning two up with a 30-34-64 over Chick Harbert, Detroit clogger, and Vic Ghezzi, another former PGA winner, from the seventh through the 12th holes.

Furgol and Locke scored six straight birdies but lost some of their edge when they missed par on two of the late holes.

Harbert, after the match declared: "They'll probably be calling Vic and me the 'Smorgasbord entry' because everybody feasts on us."

In the other match the tourney favorites, transplanted Texans Jimmy Demaret, Ojai, Calif., and Ben Hogan, the National Open and PGA champion, from Hershey, Pa., sauntered to a three-up victory over Dr. Cary Middlecoff of Memphis and Jim Ferrier the Australian-born PGA winner in 1947.

The field shot 48 birdies in the first round. Locke and Furgol took the lead with nine in the race for the $250 prize which goes to the duo with the most sub-par holes in the 126 hole stretch ending Sunday.

The Palmer-Alexander pair might have been three down, instead of two, but for a freak incident on the ninth hole, a dog-leg 492-yard par five.

Palmer's second shot hit a bare-headed gallery on the pate, the ball bounding fully 70 yards on the fly to a trap in front of the green instead of into deep rough behind trees to the left. Johnny Blasted out to within five feet and ran the put down for a birdie to halve the hole.

Under the Inverness system, under which each of the eight tourneys plays each other pair in full 18-hole rounds, a team gets a "plus" equal to the number of holes it finishes up on an opponent, and the losers get a corresponding minus.

As they go into today's double round, the standing is:

Hafner-Kelsner, plus 5; Hogan-Demaret, plus 3; Locke-Furgol, plus 2; Harrison-Hamilton, plus 2; Harbert-Ghezzi, minus 2; Palmer-Alexander, minus 2; Middlecoff-Ferrier, minus 3; Mangrum-Metz, minus 5.	AB	R	H	E

Cleveland Orchestra Season 'Financial Flop'

CLEVELAND, June 24—An "Artistic success" but a "financial flop" was the label pinned today on the Cleveland orchestra's performance for the last year.

Thomas L. Sidlo, president of the Musical Arts association, told members of the group in his annual report yesterday that the orchestra used its "first red ink in a long time" during the past season.

The unit enjoyed its "greatest artistic success" in history, Sidlo declared, but still had an operating deficit of $12,000.

Polio Cases Number 26 In Ohio Through June 19

COLUMBUS, June 24—A total of 26 polio cases were reported through June 19 by the State Health department today.

Seventeen cases were reported up to the same date last year, with a total of 1,480 for all 1947.

The health department figures characteristically lag several days behind actual appearance of new cases.

Monkey Business Marks Tree Climbing Contest

SANTA BARBARA, Calif.—Van White, 21, Pomona, Calif., made a "monkey" out of himself to win the first annual tree-climbing contest of the national shade tree conference here.

He was the only one of eight contestants to throw his rope into an 80-foot eucalyptus, attach it, climb up, swing from limb to limb and slide down the rope to the ground.

The other tree-climbers couldn't even get their ropes attached and had to use White's line so the contest could have a second and third place winner.

Police Patrol Officers Receive Nursing Workout

COLUMBUS — Two cruising officers of the Columbus police department are getting practical experience in home nursing.

Each day, 73-year-old, bed-ridden Mrs. Bertha Fox lifts the telephone beside her bed and asks that a cruiser be sent to move her from her bed to a chair by the window.

Most often the task falls to Patrolmen George Skipper and John Beasley.

After several hours by the window, Mrs. Fox is moved back to the bed by the patrolmen, who return after chasing criminals in the interval.
